Balance

Design Principle

The design principle of Balance refers to the technique of arranging visual elements so that their visual weight harmonizes with the other elements, and it will give a properly distributed graphic appearance.