

Tone

Design Element

The design Element of Tone refers to the application of effect, which is shadow and gradient design elements, mood and color to communicate. Simple black and white color supports picture more effectively to communicate.