

Lost in The Antarctic

Day 4

DATE

NO.

They notice narrative and informational structures, and a mix of both, and use appropriate thinking tools to get the most out of each part.

Bravey is used through out this whole trip.

Their boat sank. But they don't know how long they would be on ice pg:86

Almost all of their supply were under water. pg:78

For three hours they relayed their gear across the ice, a quarter mile at a time. Pg:84

"If they travel 6 miles a day, they might reach their destination by new years."

They killed the untrained puppies pg:83

The landscape is really bad. There is a lot of ice and snow nothing else.

When they were sleeping on ice they might fall into the water at any time. "The crack had opened 4 feet wide, in the water between two icy walls, Shackleton leaned down and grabbed a handful of reindeer skin."

Pg:115.

The "Endurance" was tore apart by ice. pg:75
