

Formal Elements in photography are the main elements in photography.

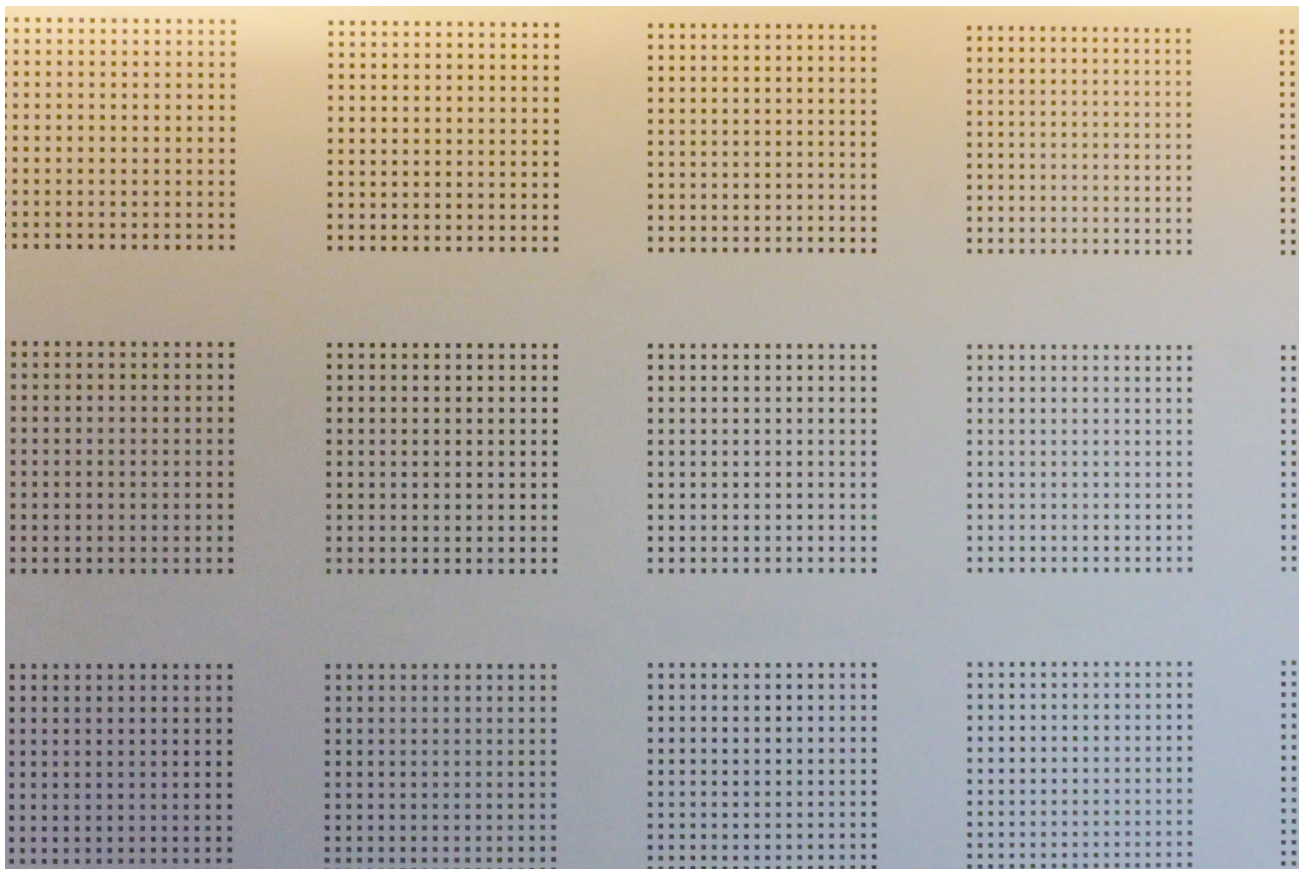

Line: The element line is when there are line in the photo.

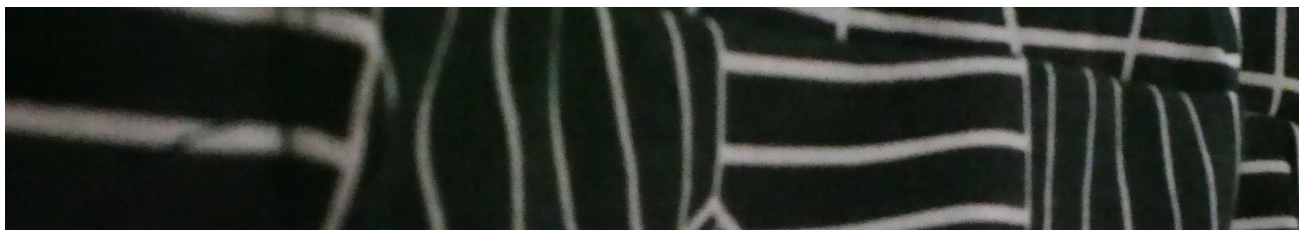

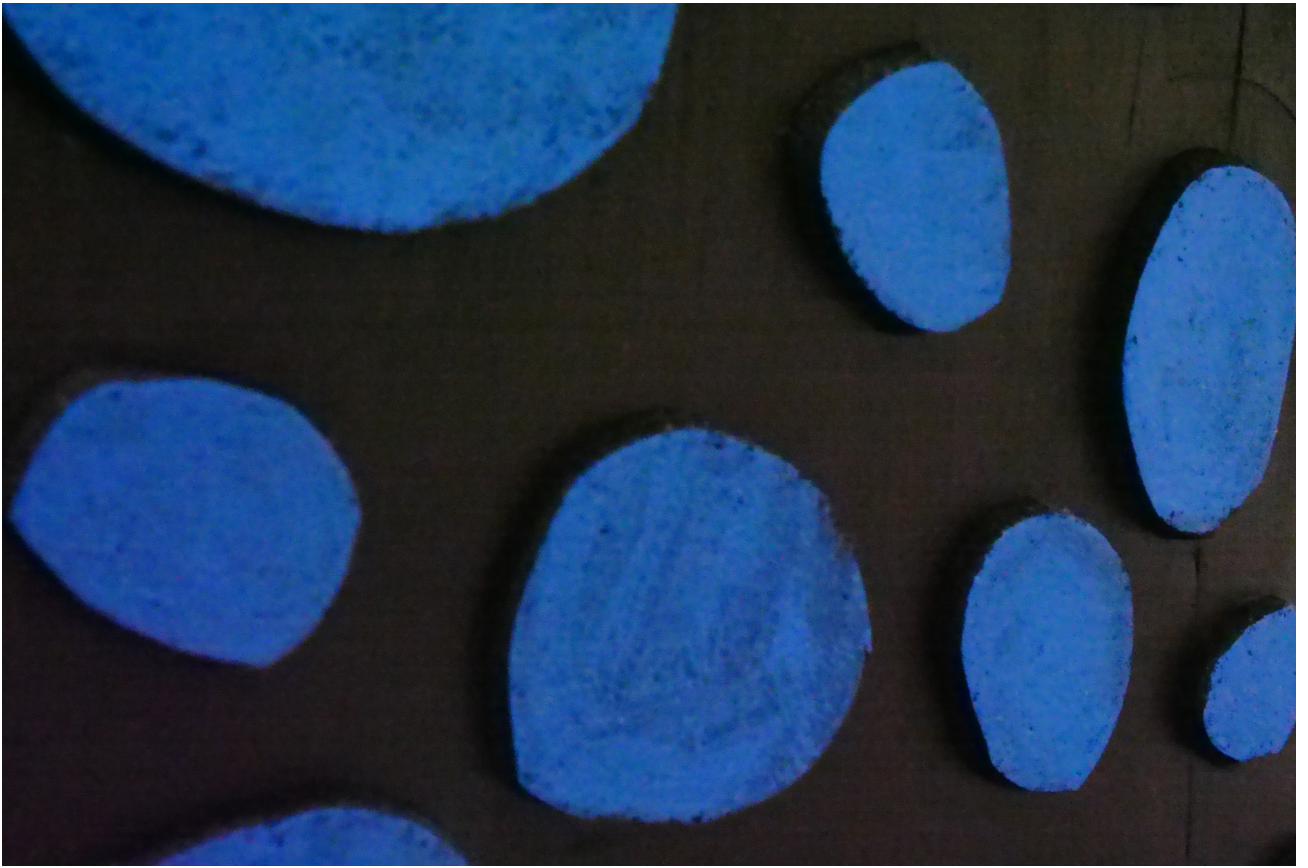

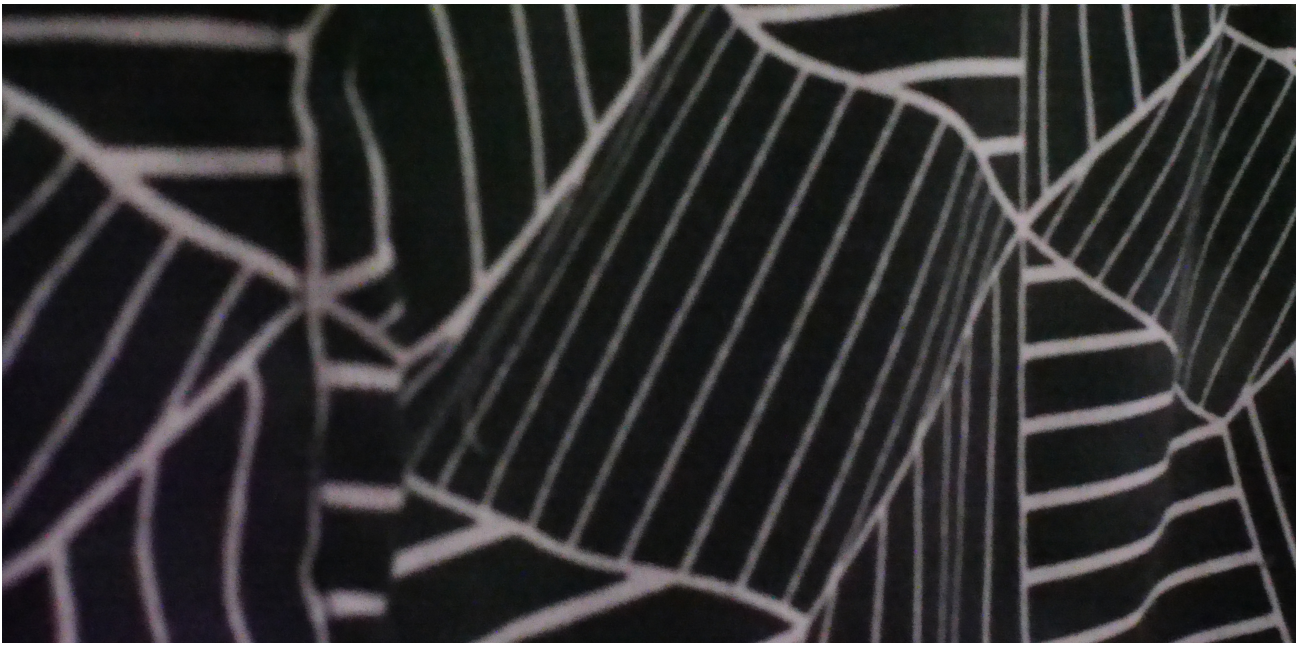

Shape: The element shape is when there are shapes in the photo.

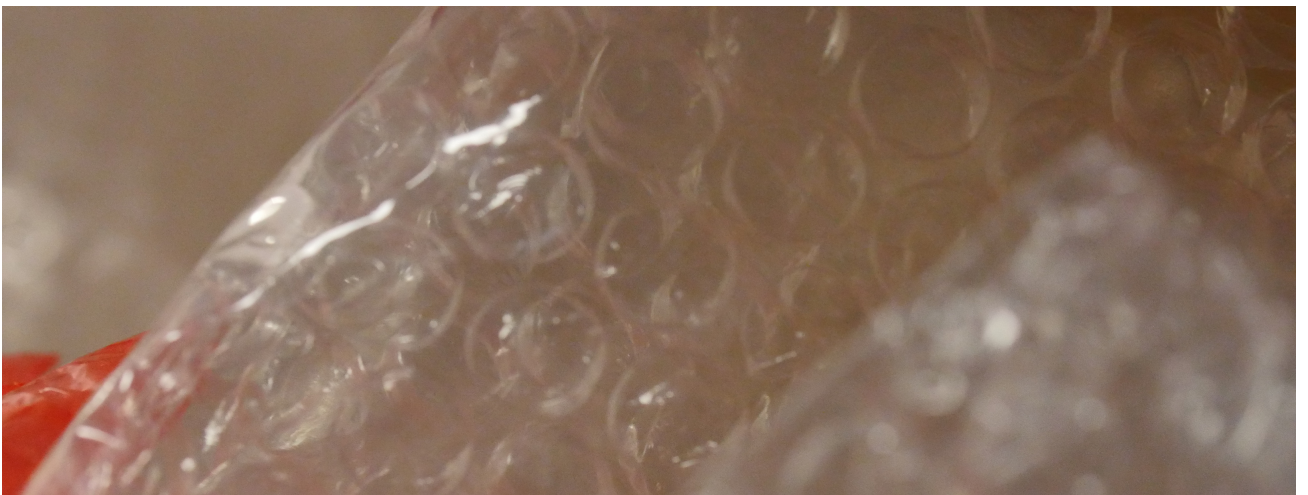

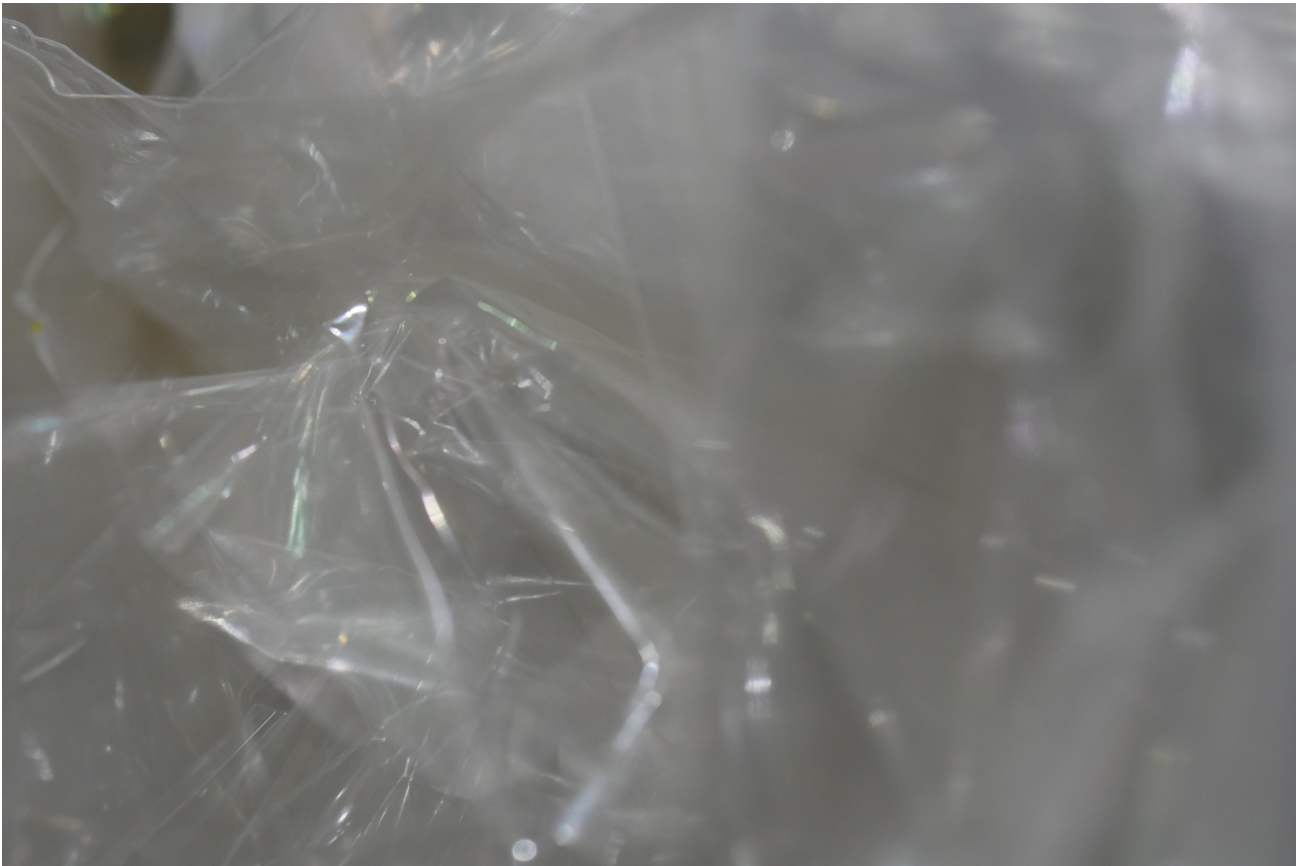

Pattern: The element pattern is when there are patterns in the photo.

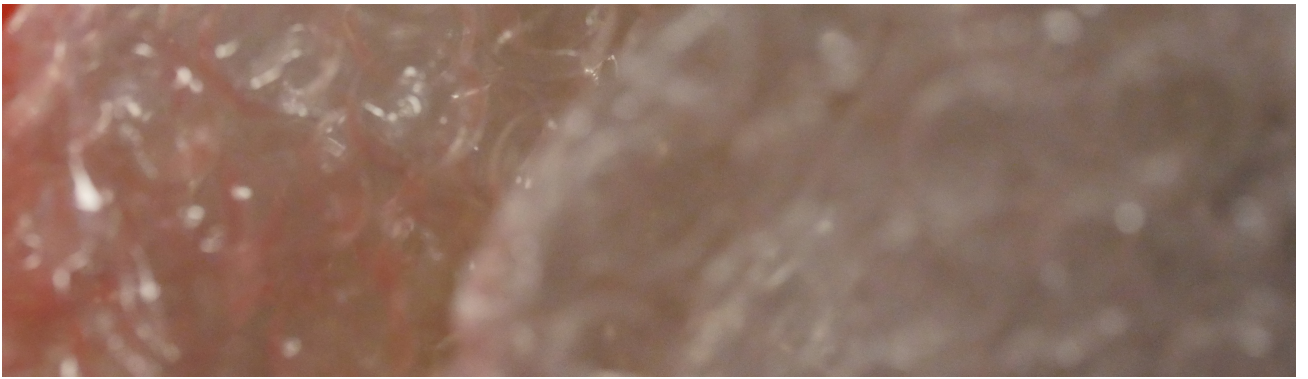

Texture: The element texture is when there is texture in the photo.

Tone: The element tone is when there are tone in the photo.

Focus: The element focus is when there is a focus in the photo.

---

An image can show more than one element at a time because you can have lines and shapes in a image.