

Renaissance Humanism

Infographic by Hobbers

1) Individualism

The importance of an individual's achievements, mean that it's believed that everyone can achieve greatness. Agree 4/5.

2) Value in education

In education, humanists stressed about the learning of "the humanities", which is about history, literature, poetry, ethics, art, architecture, government, and language etc. Agree 5/5

3) Importance of individual achievements

They believed that everyone can achieve great things in life and that this matters more than your social class or family. As humanism values the individual the most. Agree 3/5

4) Having a purpose in life

Emphasizes the value and meaning of human life on Earth. It sought to celebrate human potential, promote ethical living, and cultivate a sense of purpose and fulfillment in individuals, encouraging them to find meaning in their earthly existence rather than solely focusing on the afterlife, like people in the middle ages. Agree 5/5

5) Appreciation of classical art and culture

During the renaissance, many architecture was influenced by the designs of ancient Roman and Greek building designs. Many early humanists also hunted for ancient Greek and Roman book, coins and other artifacts to learn more and understand about empires and cultures in the past. Agree 4.5/5

