Possible themes for Unbroken:

Something to do with forgiving

"...lifetime of glory... worth a moment of pain" (Pg. 36)

Never giving up "Phil pulled his knees to his chest and covered his head..."

Mac balled himself up... Louie... dove under the raft(s.) Pg. 120

His frightened expression was gone, Mac had reclaimed himself. Pg. 121

The Japs tried to torture information out of Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald had never broken. Pg. 152

Possible central idea:

The effects of World War 2 were widespread, interrupting and ending the lives of many.

"...Europe... was exploding into total war" Pg. 44

Civilians were in shocking condition; the limbs of the adults were grotesquely swollen from beri beri; the children were gaunt. Pg. 210

These can show the central idea because they speak of citizens being in horrible condition and how war spread throughout Europe.
